DECIMAL CURRENCY

Conversion Day—Monday, Feb. 14, 1960

Commencing from Conversion Day, bookmakers have been instructed to write up their books and mark their betting tickets in Decimal Currency. As this will have an important effect on the settlement of any betting disputes, patrons are requested to give special attention to the amounts written on the betting tickets they receive. To assist patrons in this regard, a Decimal Currency Ready-Reckoner has been included in this racebook.

Betting transactions will be speeded up considerably if wagers are discussed in dollars and cents only. Of course, the use of the slang terms that applied to Old Currency could confuse both patrons and bookmakers.

As from C-Day bets may be made in—

- (1) New Currency.
- (2) Old Currency.
- (3) A mixture of both.

Bookmakers and totalisators will endeavour to pay winning bets in Decimal Currency, but are entitled to pay in the alternatives just mentioned.

Totalisators will operate on the same units.

Win-and-Place dividends will be declared on a 50c (5/-) basis.

“Quinella” dividends will be declared on a $1 (10/-) basis.

Win-and-Place tickets may be purchased in units of 50c (5/-); $1 (10/-); $2 (£1); and $10 (£5).

“Quinella” tickets may be purchased in units of $1 (10/-) and $2 (£1). All totalisator windows are marked in both old and new currency.

Patrons should not hesitate to seek further information on this subject from the Club's betting supervisors.

A Licensed Bookmaker will not be permitted to act as Clerk at Meetings of the New South Wales Trotting Club Ltd.

Bookmakers must produce their Government Tax Receipts when demanded by the Police or an Official of the New South Wales Trotting Club Ltd.

Bookmakers calling the odds to any horse straight out must, on demand, lay the odds quoted to an amount of not less than £5 in the Saddling Paddock; £4 in the Leger Reserves, but so that in no case shall the Bookmaker be compelled to lose more than £100 on any straight-out wager demanded by the takers.

In Double Event Betting a Bookmaker must lay the odds quoted to an amount of not less than £1 in the Saddling Paddock, and 10/- in the Leger Reserves.

- (c) If both horses backed run dead-heats, the money betted must be put together and divided in the proportion of one-fourth to the backer and three-fourths to the layer.
- (d) If the horse backed for the first event wins and the horse backed for the second event does not start, the bet shall be play or pay, unless otherwise agreed at the time the bet is made; provided that bets made on the course on the day of the race on which both events are run are void:—
  - (1) If the horse backed for the first event does not come under the starter's orders, or
  - (2) If the horse backed for the second event is scratched before the horse backed for the first event comes under the starter's orders, or
  - (3) If the horse backed for the first event wins and the horse backed for the second event does not come under the Starter's orders, or
  - (4) If the first event is divided after the bet is made.

Bookmakers must notify the Secretary of the New South Wales Trotting Club Ltd., in writing of all unpaid bets within seven (7) days of the Meeting.

No Bookmaker shall issue a Betting Ticket upon which the name of any other Bookmaker has been printed and no Bookmaker shall sell or transfer a Betting Ticket to any other Bookmaker or to any person on his behalf.

A Betting Ticket shall not be issued by a Bookmaker unless there is printed thereon the name and address of the Bookmaker by or on whose behalf it is issued. The name or address if impressed on the ticket with a Rubber Stamp shall not be deemed to have been printed.

A Betting Ticket which has been previously issued shall not be issued by a Bookmaker or by any person acting on his behalf.

A Bookmaker issuing a Betting Ticket at meetings of the New South Wales Trotting Club Ltd., without having his name printed on the ticket, shall be liable to have his licence cancelled.

In all disputed bets, the ticket must be submitted to the Stewards intact and not in any way mutilated, otherwise a decision may be given against the person mutilating the ticket.

A horse shall be deemed to be a starter in a race and under the Starter's hands immediately upon the Driver of such horse being ordered by the Starter to line up at or behind the starting post; provided that the Stewards shall have power to order the withdrawal of a horse from any race either before or after it has come under the Starter's orders, if, in the opinion of the Stewards, such horse is unfit or unable to run by reason of injury or otherwise.

In the event of the Stewards ordering or permitting a horse to be withdrawn from a race after the time for scratching, they may declare off all bets made on the racecourse on such race on the day it is being run or they may make such order as to the settlement of such bets made prior to the withdrawal as in their discretion they may deem just.

In the event of any infringement of the above Regulations, or in the case of any disputed Bets, it is requested that the Secretary be at once communicated with, when disputed Bets will be dealt with by the Stewards at the conclusion of the last race of the day.
