INFORMATION FOR TOTALISATOR INVESTOR

Patrons may purchase any type of bet and present a winning ticket for payment at any window. Certain windows have PAY ONLY lights above them. When these lights are on, the window will be dedicated to continuous paying on all races.

Patrons may bet in advance on any race yet to be run during the night. The unit of investment is 50 cents for win and place and $1 for quinella, doubles, trifecta and forecast. Any amount up to $9,999 may be invested on one ticket. An each way bet can be purchased for one runner per ticket. On all other pools up to six runners can be covered by one ticket.

Banker bets can be taken for quinella, trifecta and forecast. See explanation under Guide to Trifecta Betting.

A guide to TRIFECTA BETTING

The punter has to select the first three placegetters in the CORRECT FINISHING ORDER. Dividends are paid on First—Second—Third. If no investments on that combination then the dividend is paid on:

1 1952 was the first year the Inter-Dominion Championships were staged at Harold Park and the Grand Final, worth $20,000 and witnessed by 38,090 racegoers went to Avian Derby beating Recovered and Floodlight. It was an appropriate victory as Avian Derby traced back to Childe Harold after whom the Paceway was named.

2 1956 honors went to Victoria's Gentleman John who before a crowd of 34,020 finished fast wide out on the track got up in the last stride to beat Mineral Spring in a photo with Caduceus a game third from 36 yards only a length and a quarter away and registering fastest time in the race.

3 1960 was the year of the gallant New Zealander Caduceus. He was making his sixth bid for Inter-Dominion honours and they came his way but not without controversy. Before a world record crowd of 50,346, Caduceus had to survive a protest to hold the race from Apmat whom he had beaten by half a length with Maestro's Melody only a long neck back in third place.

4 1966 and Chamfer's Star became the first "Grand Slam" winner at Harold Park with victories in all heats and the Grand Final in which he beat the great New Zealand mare Robin Dundee and Dale's Gift. The Paceway was a sea of mud but Chamfer's Star, originally a betting discard at 200-1 but 3-1 favourite for the final "outswam" Robin Dundee to win by a long head in front of 24,567 drenched racegoers.

5 1973 saw the "Bathurst Bulldog" Hondo Grattan emulate the feat of Chamfer's Star and go through the Inter-Dominion series undefeated at Harold Park. In the Grand Final, witnessed by 31,070 enthusiasts, one of the closest on record, little Hondo showed his great courage to beat Royal Ascot and Glamour Chief.
